Helix & Hope

Thank you for the generous support of Helix & Hope through the Greenwood Genetic Center Foundation.

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, your gift is tax-deductible.

Your gift will have an immediate and lasting impact on families living with autism.

Helix & Hope supports the delivery of current therapies through the most effective, personalized methods possible. Your gift will also help us complete a blood-based test, which will open the doors for individuals to start therapies sooner, when they offer the most promise. Families are counting on us all.
